International Farhud Day

On this day—on Shavuot—we remember the horrific Arab-Nazi pogrom inflicted on the Jewish citizens of Baghdad, June 1–2, 1941: The Farhud. This violent dispossession was the beginning of the Nazi-style process of exclusion and dispossession that would conclude with the public expulsion of Iraqi Jews and the end of the 2,700-year-old Iraqi Jewish community. Join Edwin Black, NY Times bestselling author of The Farhud and the originator of International Farhud Day at the United Nations, who will ask: can it happen again?
